Table Tennis Ireland Appoint new Participation and Inclusion Officer in Ulster!

Schools Round Up

Ryan Harrison - a recent Ulster University graduate, has started a new role within TTU, based in Lisburn Racquets Club. TTI hope that with the appointment of Ryan, the game of Table Tennis can grow to new heights in Ulster. With a direct aim of improving the involvement across all ages in Ulster, Ryan will target schools and clubs and the early ages first, to get a good base to build from.

If you have any issues or want to chat to Ryan give him an email on admin@tabletennisulster.com

A record number of school kids attended our recent Ulster Schools Cup Individuals held in Lisburn. Over 260 attended from over 25 schools! To see the full report head to our website

Competition time!

Upcoming Course in Banbridge

Table Tennis Ulster will be running a safeguarding course, available to all members on April 24th, in Ballydown Primary Banbridge. For anyone who wishes to attend, please send your name and contact number through to admin@tabletennisulster.com for more information.

World Table Tennis Day 2023!

Starting this year, WTTD will be celebrated on April 23rd every year! a day dedicated to the sport, and a day that will help encourage participation and interest in our ever growing game! Keep an eye out on our socials for updates on events we will be running on WTTD!!

As our newsletter will be published once a month, we need your help to make it stand out in the crowd! We need a new name for it, and one that everyone will remember, do you think you can do it?

If so, send an email to admin@tabletennisulster.com before April 30th with, your name, school/club and the new name for our newsletter. The winner will get the newsletter renamed, as well as receive a goody bag from us at TTU! Good Luck!
